A WORD OF APPRECIATION

WE cannot finish our High School course, without expressing our appreciation to one who has done so much for us, not only in the sympathy, encouragement, and support he has at all times given us, but in a larger way, the great good he has done our schools in raising the standards and placing us on a higher plane. We now have the honor of being an accredited High School, a member of the Southern Conference of Accredited High Schools, and according to the statistics of the State Department of Education, our High School ranks first in Grade B of City High Schools in the State.

In 1913, when Mr. Rollins was elected County Superintendent, there was not a rural brick school building in Vance County. Today we have five, large, handsome brick schools with all modern conveniences, accessible to every white child in Vance County. In 1913, the valuation of Rural School Property was $28,625,—today it is $450,000. To raise the scholastic standard of the school, better teachers had to be employed. In 1913 the average salary was $28.50 per month. Today it is $104.52. It was due to his foresight and desire to give not only to city children but the rural child the best, that Vance County became one of the first to give the rural child an eight months school.

In 1923 Mr. Rollins became Superintendent of Vance County Consolidated Schools, assuming administrative control of both City and Rural Schools, and in that time, in spite of the inadequacy of buildings in the city for the accommodation of the ever increasing number of High School children, he has given us the best teachers that have so equipped the graduates going out to the various colleges of the State, that they compete easily with students from the larger cities.

Living quietly in our midst, unostentatiously, never claiming in any way credit for what he has done, but always working for the best interests of the schools of Vance County, they stand today, to all thoughtful minded people, an eternal monument to his patient, vigilant, and effective work. We honor him and we love him, and the future generations can only add volume to the praise we give him.

CLASS POEM

Now it is time to say goodbye,
Farewell to good old Henderson High;
All our eyes are laden with tears
As we think of these happy years.

'Fore traveling this road of life,
Pause — dream awhile as if 'twere night;
In our minds happy dreams appear
From days spent in this shrine so dear.

But I must not spend too much time
Just writing on this idle rime
For there's so much yet to be done,
If great we wish to become.

Here's to good old Henderson High,
Memory of you will never die;
On all may your influence be felt,
As on us with whom you have dealt.

Onward — like soldiers in a fight,
Onward march with all our might
For great glory, honor, and fame,
Joy, success we'll bring to thy name.

The time has come when we must part,
Say goodbye, 'though it breaks our heart;
Our friendships, they won't sever,
We'll always long to be together.

To the class of thirty — all hail!
Into the sea of life they're ready to sail;
We wish for them all that life can afford
Besides what God has already bestowed.

SAIDEE ISABELLE BOYD

Activities: Sophomore Editor, '28; Girls' A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Senior Basketball Team, '30; Vice-President of Girls' Glee Club, '29; President of Girls' Glee Club, '30; Secretary of Class, '29; Member of Tennis Club, '27; Marshal, '27, '28, '29.

Here's to one of our best pupils. She's made 1's so long, we're afraid it is a habit. Besides excelling in books, "Suzanne" is our best bet in Tennis. On the whole, she is a real good sport and a real good pal.

SCOTT BOYD

Activities: A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Baseball, '27, '28, '29; Basketball, '29, '30; Captain Basketball Team, '30; Football, '30; Athletic Editor PEP-PAC, '30; Monogram Club, '29, '30.

Scott always gets by in his studies. In athletics, we couldn't get along without him. He is as Mercury in basketball. When our classes get boresome, we all wait for Scott to make a brilliant remark. Part of the annual was left up to him and you can bet he is always here with the goods. Well, Scott, here's hoping you make the All-American!

JAMES HARRY BRYAN

Activities: Boys' A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Assistant Art Editor, '30.

James is not noted for his speed, but he gets there just the same. He has shown genuine ability as an artist and we hope to see his name some day on magazine covers as the illustrator. He is always obliging and willing to help everyone. James will be greatly missed next year.

PEP-PAC

RUTH WHITFIELD BUCHAN

Activities: Hiking Club, '26; Tennis Club, '27, '28; Girls' A. A., '26, '27, '28, '29, '30; Photograph Editor, '30; Prettiest, '28; Most Attractive, '27; Prettiest, '30; Most Popular, '30.

The fact that Ruth was elected the most popular girl in school this year proves that she is well liked by all her schoolmates. Although we wouldn't call her particularly studious, we know that she will do what she says she will, and we are proud to have her as a member of the class of '30.

NANCY BURWELL CHAVASSE

Activities: Freshman Editor, '27; Tennis Club, '27; Secretary of Class, '28; Treasurer of Class, '29; Glee Club, '29; Vice-President of Class, '30; Asst. Editor of Annual, '30; Editor of School Paper, '30; A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Senior Basketball Team, '30.

Just "Nancy" is the term that best characterizes her. As she is always the same quiet, loving, sympathetic classmate. She feels her responsibility as Editor of our school paper and earnestly endeavors to do her part. Attractive, popular, energetic, capable—that's Nancy.

MARY BYRD ELLINGTON

Activities: Girls' Glee Club, '28, '29, '30; Girls' A. A., '29, '30; Secretary and Treasurer of Girls' Glee Club, '30.

Here you see one of the most amiable members of our class. One never sees Mary Byrd with a frown, but she is always smiling, ready to cheer up any blue member of her class. She is an all-round student, liked by all her teachers and classmates, and we certainly wish her the best there is in life.

CLARA MAE ELLIS

Activities: Girls' Glee Club, '28.

Modern girls are usually noisy, and a maid of demure demeanor is a rarity and is, therefore, delightful. Indeed, Clara Mae is a rarity. She is a girl of the mildest manners and the gentlest heart. Always willing and ready to help. It is just such traits of willingness, unselfishness, and friendliness that go to make everyone love and admire Clara Mae.

RICHARD HENDERSON EVANS

Activities: A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Boys' A. A., '30; Business Manager PEP-PAC, Class Treasurer, '30; Secretary-Treasurer Boys' Glee Club, '30; Football, '29; Biggest Sheik Senior's, '30; Cheer Leader, '30.

An all-round fellow is Dick. On the team or in the class-room we can depend on him. His blonde head and everlasting smile will always be seen where the best are gathered. To him we owe part of the success of the PEP-PAC. We are glad to have Dick graduate with us, for he is one of the best of us. Good luck, Dick! We're betting on you.

DWIGHT ELMO FAULKNER

Activities: A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Assistant Advertising Manager PEP-PAC, '30; Boys' Glee Club, '30.

Elmo is one of our silver throated tenors—although this is not an identifying trait, the manner in which he enters into the Glee Club is symbolical of the wholehearted, brilliant way that he participates in everything. He always gets good marks on all his subjects. Mr. Green could hardly hold a class without Elmo making some valuable contribution to the recitation. In future years Elmo will realize his particular talents and apply them diligently and successfully.

PEP-PAC

DANIEL LESLIE GARRETT

Activities: A. A., '29, '30; Boys' Glee Club, '30.

Dan is one of our most faithful members. He is always ready to help anybody. He is quiet and unassuming, but always to be depended upon. We have no doubt as to his ability to succeed.

MABEL DIXIE HAYES

Activities: A. A., '27, '29, '30; Tennis Club, '27, '29; Recitation-Declamation Contest, '26, '27, '29.

Well, just think of those coming in after the bell has rung, and you're thinking of Mabel. Mabel, we are so sorry that they start school so early for we know you would like to sleep longer. But Mabel is not late for everything by any manner of means. She would have a fit if she wasn't present at every basketball game and yelling her head off. She's good natured and would help other people lots quicker than she would herself. She's a friend of the class of '30 and the class is wishing you luck, Mabel.

ANNIE LUCILLE HARRIS

Any one observing Mrs. Paris' last period English class would think Annie had not a serious thought in the world. She is always smiling or laughing, but we know that underneath this smiling exterior she is sincere and earnest in her work, a good student, and liked by all her classmates. Luck to you, too, Annie!

1930

PEP-PAC

ANNIE DORIS HICKS

Doris is one of the quietest and most reserved girls in our class, but these traits do not hide her willingness to help others and be a good friend to her schoolmates. We are sure Doris will be successful in whatever she chooses for her life's work.

CORNELIA FRANCES HUNT

Activities: Girls' Glee Club, '28, '29; A. A., '27, '28, '29; Tennis Club, '27, '28.

A little sunshine on a dreary day symbolizes Frances. You never see Hunt or "Sparrow", as she's often called, looking gloomy. Although quite a flirt, Frances is a good sport and a true friend. A little advice, Hunt, don't vamp too much.

MILDRED IDELLE HUNT

Activities: Glee Club, '29, '30; A. A., '26, '27, '28, '29, '30; Tennis Club, '26.

Mildred has a truly cheerful countenance. She always looks on the bright side of everything. She has some wise cracks to make about everything. "Though Mildred seems quite bashful in class, you don't know the half of it."

1930

PEP-PAC

WILLIE DUKE JOHNSON

Activities: A. A., '26, '27, '28, '29, '30.

William is probably the most inventive boy in our class. His latest is some shock-tricity appliance that will give one touching his ear a serious stream of Benjamin Franklin's bottle medicine. His class work he always does well and with dispatch. In chemistry, in history, in fact in all his studies, he does his part keeping the class running as well as his auto. He is one whom we will all miss when the time comes to graduate.

KATIE ALLENE LOWRY

Activities: Basketball, '27, '28, '29, '30; A. A. '29; Monogram Club, '29, '30.

Allene is one of our star athletes in basketball. The goal is made if Allene has the ball. The girls would really feel lost without her. She is a good student, an enthusiastic supporter of all school activities, and always a friend in time of need.

WILLIAM CHRISTIAN MARTIN

Activities: Football, '29; Baseball, '30; Orchestra, '29, '30; Glee Club, '30; Wilmington High, '27, '28; A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30.

Enus' congenial disposition wins friends for him easily and makes him always welcome in any gathering. He takes advantage of every opportunity to be with the ladies. Besides running after the ladies, W. C. is a good pig-skin chaser.

NETTIE MARY BELL MAYNARD

Tall, attractive, sincere, and friendly—that's Nettie. One that can be loved and trusted—that's you, Nettie. Yes, you are one of the most loyal members of our class. We wish for you the best of everything in your future life.

CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH NEWMAN

Activities: A. A., '29, '30; Girls' Glee Club, '29, '30.

Her quiet and unassuming manner tends to fool one into believing that she sees only the serious side of life. But all of her classmates know that she is a combination of gentle dignity and good humor. Charlotte, you have been a loyal member of our class. Our best wishes are yours.

PHIENA ADDIE NELSON

Activities: Neatest girl in Senior Class, '30.

Three cheers for the neatest girl in the senior class! She is none other than Phiena, a quiet, reserved, pretty member of our class. She is always among the first to offer her good judgment in any of our difficulties. We know that she will get the best in life, for neatness and determination are good qualities, besides the numerous others she has as a good beginning.

1930

PEP-PAC

JOHN TETTEMER O'NEIL

Activities: Hi-Y Club, '26; President Class, '28, '29, '30; Sophomore Football Manager, '28; Orchestra '28, '29, '30; Chief Marshal, '29; First Editor "Barks From The Bulldogs", '29; Glee Club, '30; Vice-President Glee Club, '30; Editor-in-Chief PEP-PAC, '30; President Boys' Athletic Association, '30; Best All-Round, '30; A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Most Influential, '30; Junior Editor PEP-PAC, '29.

In school John outshines the rest. Out of school he makes the others look dim. In fact he shines brighter in most everything. He possesses an accommodating nature and he is a loyal fellow. Has he brains? And how! John is usually at the head of anything that goes over big. John is our editor and you can see what a good one he is. Here's hoping that sometime in the future, John, you will be President of the United States and serve as well as you have served us for the last three years!

EMILY JANE PENN

Activities: Danville: Swimming Club, '26; A. A., '26; Jefferson Literary Club, '26; Glee Club, '26; Statistics, '27; Henderson: Wittiest, '28, '30; Vice-President Glee Club, '28, '29, '30; A. A., '29, '30; Class Secretary, '30.

Emily, known by her comical little laugh, has a keen sense of humor to help us all keep "our sunny sides up". She is cheerful, helpful and kind. Who's loved and admired by all? That's you—Emily. In the hearts of each member of the senior class you will be remembered as a rare combination of a true friend and a good sport.

SALLY SUE PITTMAN

Activities: Girls' A. A., '26, '27, '28; Girls' Glee Club, '28, '29; Mascot of Senior Class of '27.

They say that every cloud has a silver lining and sometimes in H. H. S. We have our doubts, and then along comes Sally, with all her cheerfulness and good humor. Sally has a friendly smile for every one; she's a good sport, a jolly companion and she's done her part toward making the senior class of '30 a merry one.

PEP-PAC

EMMA MADALINE POWELL

Activities: Recitation Medal, '27; Marshal, '28, '29; Senior Class Mascot, '27; Glee Club, '29, '30; Publicity Director of Glee Club, '30; Class Poet, '30.

Although the smallest and youngest senior, Madaline is one of our most popular classmates. She is attractive, entertaining, and witty. She has talent for reciting and has entertained us on many programs. She is—well, she's brilliant.

ANNIE LAURIE ROYSTER

Who is that quiet, reserved young lady? She always looks as neat as a pin and is always the first one to offer help to any dumb-bell who can't seem to get his or her (which ever the case may be—usually both) assignments. Whatever she's doing, even if you interrupt her unnecessarily, always a quiet, friendly smile greets you. Yes, that's Annie Laurie from the top of her chestnut hair to the soles of her slippers.

HELEN KIMBALL ROYSTER

Activities: Girls' Glee Club, '28, '29; Girls' A. A., '27, '28, '29; Tennis Club, '27, '28.

Who is that laughing over at the other side of the room? Why, Helen Royster, of course! We all know Helen's laugh, for it is quite distinctive, and expressive of her fun-loving nature. The word "worry" is not included in Helen's vocabulary, and we've never seen her with a case of the blues. We are sure Helen will make an enviable position for herself in the future.

PEP-PAC

LUCILE CURRIN RUX

Activities: Girls' A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Tennis Club, '28, '29; Glee Club, '28, '29; Recitation Contest, '28.

"Cile" with her winning ways has won for herself many friends in school and out of school. She is a good "pal" and always to be depended on. Beware of one thing when in the company of "Cile", don't get her tickled because she is like the girl who told the teacher she "laughed and it busted". "Cile" can always be found in love with a new "crush".

KATHERINE JORDAN SMITH

Activities: Girls' A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Tennis Club, '27, '28; Senior Girls' Basketball Team, '30; Girls' Glee Club, '28.

Who is that coming down the street with Sal Young and Mary Meadows Duke? Why, none other than Katherine Smith. Where one is the other two are. Katherine, a jolly, happy-go-lucky girl is hardly ever seen by her classmates, in a disagreeable mood. We could not say that she takes her time about talking though, for she goes at breakneck speed all of the time and generally Dick Evans has a collapse. Nevertheless, Kat has a lot of good traits and gets there just the same, so good luck to her always.

MATTIE RUTH STONE

Activities: Class Prophet, '30.

No matter how much confusion—no matter how many heads are lost, Ruth keeps hers and remains cool and composed through it all. Ruth is destined to be a poet and we wish her much success.

1930

PEP-PAC

JEWEL STRANGE

Activities: Tennis Club, '28; Girls' A. A. '28; Business Manager Girls' Basketball Team, '30; Girls' Basketball Team, '28, '29; Senior Basketball Team, '30.

When someone asks, "Who is one of the best players on the girls' basketball team," the reply is, "Jewel Strange." She's a grand player and puts everything she has into the game. We are just wondering how they are going to do without her next year. Athletic, jolly, and friendly, that's Jewel.

CLARENCE RANDOLPH SPRUILL

Activities: A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Boys' A. A., '30; Advertising Manager PEP-PAC, '30; Boys' Glee Club, '30; Neatest Senior Boy, '30.

We must admit that Clarence is rather quiet and solemn — a perfect gentleman. He believes his studies to be a necessary evil and passes them with credit. When it comes to having real, true friends, Clarence has them by the carload.

MARY PITTS TURLEY

Activities: Clayton High School, '26; Girls' Glee Club, Clayton, '26; Girls' A. A., '27.

Has anyone ever seen Mary Pitts with the blues? Of course not. Her happy-go-lucky nature and winning way simply scares them away. Though she never carries a compact, she seems to succeed in keeping her nose well powdered. Take a little contemptuous smile and add to this a care-free manner; mix these with a neat appearance, flavor with wit and stir in a little superior air of dignity. This is Mary Pitts' recipe.

PEP-PAC

CLAIRE PITTMAN TYLER

Claire has made a good record and a host of lifetime friends in Henderson High School. She has always taken an interest in the affairs of the school and is for H. H. S., win or lose. In whatever field you go, Claire, we wish you luck and success.

CAROLYN LEWIS WATKINS

Activities: Girls' A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Tennis Club, '28, '29; Glee Club, '29; Marshal, '29.

Here's to the class flirt! She's a jolly old pal, attractive and entertaining. She has a habit of raising an eyebrow—and the effect it has on the men! She is one of our best pupils—especially in foreign languages. Here's luck to you, "Bug".

JOHN FRANCIS BULLOCK WATKINS

Activities: A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Boys' Glee Club, '30; Testator, '30.

"I don't know," you'll usually hear him say, but leave it to him to find out. Out, as well as in school, he is a jolly good fellow. He is always ready to do most anything for a friend. He is a good student and always ready for fun. Once in a great while he falls in love. Well, John Francis, here's wishing the best success that your nineteen units will bring.

FLORENCE MARIAN WORLEY

Activities: Girls' A. A., '27, '28, '29, '30; Girls' Glee Club, '28, '29; Basketball, '29, '30; Manager Basketball Team, '30; Monogram Club, '30; Senior Girls' Basketball Team, '30; Tennis Club, '28, '29; Orchestra, '30.

Marian is a good student, a sincere friend, and a wow in basketball. We wonder what the team will do without her next year. She has certainly done her part in winning many a game for Henderson High School, and will be sorely missed by the team, the faculty, and her classmates.

JOHN DAVID WRENN

Activities: A. A., '26, '27, '28, '29, '30; Boys' Glee Club, '30.

John David, known by his dark, black hair, is a valuable asset to the Senior Class. He has learned that studies and pleasures don't mix, so he has chosen the one which causes him the least worry. Nevertheless, he succeeds in passing his work. John David never lets anything worry him, not even his love affairs. We are sure he will find happiness in the future.

DAVID SKENES

David is the hardest working boy in the Senior Class. He always has his lessons remarkably prepared, and he never fails. After four short years of companionship we fully realize what a friend he is—we shall never forget him. He is willing to render assistance to any one at any time needed. We are sure that he will be a knockout in the business world.

CLASS HISTORY

*We never have felt so dismal and scared
As on that day to the High School we fared.*

*The old ones were there with their paddles so grim,
And we ran by with a run full of vim.*

*They laughed at our plight as we marched into school,
And we in our life never felt such a fool.*

*We herded together like scared little sheep,
And tried so hard the tears for to keep.*

*At last with the help of kind Mister Greene
We removed our mourning, our greenness, we mean.*

*Our Sophomore year was cheerful and bright,
We loved our dear High School, and for it we'd fight.*

*We teased the freshies. It was such great sport;
And then the girls we began to court.*

*We went to the games, and rooted and yelled;
The Championship for Henderson High we held.*

*We passed our exams and even a test
Which of all things Mister Greene liked best.*

*Then we read Shakespeare; Portia was fine.
And then as Juniors we all stepped in line.*

*Our Junior year was big and splendid—
The Seniors we helped and their plans amended.*

*We gave to the Seniors a party, and bade
Them all to come; a good time we had.*

PEP-PAC

*In June they took their diplomas, and we
In their places as Seniors now could be.*

*Now we are Seniors — That magic word!
It's the dearest of all we ever heard.*

*We took our place and did our best;
We worked so hard on every test.*

*We pushed the PEP-PAC right along;
We helped the Freshmen right their wrong;*

*We passed mid-year exams; they weren't so bad;
And when they were over we were some glad!*

*The Juniors party we attended with glee,
And had the best time you ever did see.*

*Then came graduation, it seemed awful sad.
There were tears in our eyes, but still we were glad.*

*We were happy because we had done our best,
And in Henderson High had stood the test.*

*Then goodbye, Henderson High, your image we cherish,
Our love for you will surely never perish.*

SENIOR CRYSTALLOMANCY

ONE night I was sitting before the fire studying for an examination when I fell asleep.

I dreamed that I was a librarian in a large library in New York City. I heard some girls arguing about who had been "Miss America" in 1936. Well, not knowing, and being interested, I began looking through newspapers and magazines to find the article. While searching, I ran across several articles concerning my classmates of '29 and '30, so I began to wonder what had become of all of them. Thereupon, I began running through several old publications, and before many days had gone by, I had learned something about every one of my classmates. In my dream, I already had a few clippings from different sources in a scrap book, and so, everything I found at the library I copied into it.

After I had completed my scrap book, the following is what it contained:

Sadie Boyd, noted singer, recently returned from Paris, where she has been for nearly a year. Of course, she saw her old friends and classmates, Emily Penn and Lucile Rux, who own the coziest and quaintest "Teeac Pshoppe" in Paris.

Naney Chavasse, in private life the wife of the noted author James Bryan, is a favorite star in talking pictures. Great picture men say that she has the most wonderful voice in America.

A new world's record in non-stop flying was recently made by W. C. Martin and Richard Evans. They flew from New York to Berlin and returned without stopping, using a new fuel invented by Prof. William Johnson. Elmo Faulkner, the most reliable and best-known airplane mechanic accompanied them on the harrowing trip. Girls, Dick and W. C. are great catches. Yes, they're both good-looking, witty, and not married.

After trying the garage business several years, Dan Garrett is now managing a very prosperous truck farm in Florida. It is rumored that he is considering opening a fashionable dancing school.

The costumes in all pictures released by the "Skenes Producing Co." are always dazzlingly beautiful since they are designed by Sallie Sue Pittman, the foremost designer of the world.

PEP-PAC

Being disgusted with shorthand and typewriting, Frances Hunt is the owner of the most patronized "Bootie Pahlour" in the prosperous city of Oxford. Her best and most popular manicurist is Miss Nettie Maynard.

Having studied dancing for several years, Madaline Powell is Ziegfield's much-demanded "Daneing Midget". It is said that she is going to Africa for a short while to learn some of the steps of the Pygmies of that continent, which we are sure she will interpret to perfection.

Chicago's (look out for that bullet!) greatest and best loved librarian is Annie Laurie Royster. She is competent, kind and neat; old and young alike respect her efficiency.

The new Henderson High School is fortunate in having Miss Clara Mae Ellis for a history teacher. Miss Ellis is very informed on her subject and has done quite a bit of research in the Paleozoic (four out of five have it) Age. The first graders are very much enthused.

Illustrated short stories are all the rage, and four year old copies are in all the dentists' offices. The insurpassable team in this field is Mary Byrd Ellington, author and Carolyn Watkins, noted illustrator.

Dr. Clarence Spruill, extremely eminent orthopedic surgeon, held a clinic at Dabney last week, where he, with numerous assistants, did considerable philanthropic work, which was undoubtedly very beneficial.

Claire Tyler, ne'er do well (pardon—I forgot the usual superlative) Claire Tyler, very noted painter, is spending the winter in Italy (Salute the Fascisti!) with some friends.

All the movie fans are simply wild about John O'Neil. You should hear the high school girls raving over him. His wife, formerly Ruth Buchan, plays with him, but he's so handsome the girls forget that he's married. But Ruth has plenty of admirers, too. In fact, they're so popular and receive so much fan mail that they have to employ Mildred Hunt as their secretary. As a private secretary, she is extremely talented.

Last night at Greensboro, Scott Boyd fought John David Wrenn for the state heavyweight championship. It was a tough fight, but in the end Boyd won. Wrenn is now going to marry Miss Jewel Strange, instructor of physical education at N.C.C.W. at Greensboro (so rumor has it) and settle down.

Helen Royster, an interior decorator of some repute, returned to New York after spending several days visiting friends and relatives in Henderson.

A bathing beauty contest was held at Atlantic City, N. J., and out of the forty-eight most beautiful girls representing the forty-eight states, Miss Allene Lowry was chosen to represent the United States as "Miss America" in the international contest, of which Brother Cobb will be a judge.

Phicna Nelson and Annie Harris recently completed training at the Maria Parham Hospital and are now in Philadelphia taking a postgraduate course. They intend to go the succor of the starving children of Warrenton.

Miss Marion Worley, noted pianist who has been giving concerts in Europe, is now visiting her parents at Henderson, N. C. Before Miss Worley returns to Europe, she will broadcast from, among other stations in the country, W.P.T.F. (we play the phonograph) at Raleigh.

Mr. John Francis Watkins has recently returned from an airplane show in Paris. Mr. Watkins is the president of the Coast to Coast Passenger Plane Co., and one of the greatest men in the business world today.

Miss Katherine Smith, a kindergarten teacher (?) at Wofford, is spending her vacation at San Francisco, Cal.

Oxford High School has secured two new teachers for the coming year. Miss Doris Hicks will teach Geometry, and Miss Mary Pitts Turley will endeavor to drill English into the heads of her pupils.

Mabel Hayes, America's champion tennis player will play Suzanne Bexjdrs next week in Czdgpxrdsky, Russia.

Suddenly I awoke and I couldn't help thinking of all the different things that I had dreamed my classmates were and yet, who knows what they will be?

RUTH STONE, Prophet.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of the Henderson High School, City of Henderson, State of North Carolina, realizing that our days in this life are short; and having accumulated a vast amount of worldly possessions do will and bequeath them as follows:

ITEM I.

We will and bequeath:

1. To the faculty our sincere hopes that some day every one will pass on his exams.
2. To Mr. Rollins our deepest appreciation and most sincere regards.
3. To Mr. Cobb our extreme gratitude for the radical changes which he has introduced; namely, new shades, paint for the columns, more laboratory equipment, and no time class.
4. To Miss Wood our earnest desire that the honor system will soon be introduced in our dear old school.
5. To Mr. Greene the hope that some day a member of his class will win the National Chemical Essay Prize.
6. To Miss Taylor a Boy's Glee Club with six first tenors which will win the state prize.
7. To Mrs. Paris a perpetual board eraser and a brake for her eye-glasses.
8. To Mr. Payne our sincere hope that all of his teams will slaughter Oxford.
9. To Mrs. Weir, a home room which will be first out of the building at dinner.
10. To Miss Bethea a bigger and better Cicero class.
11. To Miss Hight a set of parallel French books so the incoming senior class will not have to buy them.
12. To Mrs. Phillips a home room so she will be settled.
13. To Henry the hope that some day he will be able to get all the students in on time.

ITEM II.

To the Incoming Seniors we will and bequeath:

1. The use of our home room No. 3 and the hope that their numerous Senior privileges will be returned.

PEP-PAC

2. To Page Gooch the quiet disposition of Annie Laurie Royster.
3. To Mary Allen the pep and vigor of Emily Penn.
4. To Thomas Swain the height of Richard Evans.
5. To Bushy Sellars, Tommy Miller, and Billy Brewer the hope that they may star in Athletics.

ITEM III.

To the Incoming Juniors we will and bequeath:

1. The hope that they will achieve scholarly honors, even as ours.
2. To Elizabeth Singleton the popularity of her sister.
3. To Nick Chavasse the basketball ability of Scott Boyd.
4. To Billy Penn the seriousness of Sadie Belle Boyd.

ITEM IV.

To the Incoming Sophomores we will and bequeath:

1. The joy of not being a Freshman.
2. To William Adcock the popularity of George Cooke.
3. To Adele Powell, Clara Fenner, and Jessie Rose the height of popularity of Helen Royster.

ITEM V.

1. To the Athletic Association the hope that they will never be pressed for money.
2. To the P.T.A. our undying gratitude for their assistance in many matters.
3. To the Incoming Freshmen the hope that the building won't decay until they graduate.

We, the undersigned, do declare this to be the Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1930. Signed and sealed this the fifth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty.

A JUNIOR'S IDEA OF SENIORITY

SENIORITY as defined by the dictionary means the state of being a Senior, but as defined by a Junior it means Paradise. Seniority is the highest degree of bliss that can be given to a student. All through high school the one ambition is to be a Senior. Somehow Seniority has attained a halo of its own which cannot be replaced by anything else. A Senior commands respect and admiration from every one. Although it requires many years to become a Senior the result is worthy of it.

Senior privileges! Juniors are always envious of these. Seniors in the slightest pretext can get out of class any time. They are always seen slipping out somewhere. Next we hope we will have a nice library to go to when Study Hall becomes dull. We hope to command the respect that should be gotten from Freshmen—something the Seniors don't have this year.

It won't be long now until we are the Seniors of '31.

CAMPUS PESTS—NOT SAL AND MARY MEADOWS

*No school is quite complete without
The unrestrained victrola,
Who, on the slightest urge, will shout
Forth Newton, Proust, or Zola.*

*She knows it all; her tongue is glib,
Her store of facts abundant.
She never felt the need to crib;
Her themes are not redundant.*

*And yet she's left alone to bloom,
For dances aren't her media,
And no sane classmate wants to room
With an encyclopedia.*

Brice was by far the best end that Henderson has had in several years, and we shall be sorry to lose him this year.

SCOGGINS, Guard

Teddy always fought hard and improved as the year wore on. We expect much of him next year.

BOYD, End

Scott is one of our steady, hard and strong players. Although usually unspectacular, he is always there with the goods. We are sorry to lose him this year.

GREENE, Guard

Bobby always played a steady, dependable game, and would fight to the last whistle. He has two more years to star for H. H. S.

BREWER, Guard

Billy started the season at center, but was shifted to guard, where he played a good brand of ball all season. We expect much of him next year.

HAYES, Center

Sol played up to form in all games of the year, and his defensive work was something to marvel at. He has one more year with H. H. S.

HARRISON, Fullback

George could kick, pass and run with the best of them, and proved to be very good on defense also. He has two more years at H. H. S.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

ALTHOUGH the Bulldogs got off to a weak start, they soon picked up and defeated Roxboro, one of our strongest opponents, by an overwhelming score. On the whole, football was moderately successful. Considering the raw material and inexperienced players that Coach Payne had to mold into shape, the results of the season were truly astounding. Henderson won five out of the eleven games played. That Brice Fonville, our star end, left at the end of the season is a much to be regretted fact. George Harrison, who helped so much to take the games we won, and who fought so hard when we were losing was our triple threat man. We finally topped the season by winning over the team which had barely defeated us at the beginning of the season. Captain Miller, our heady field general, piloted his team to many spectacular victories.

Next year our Alma Mater is anticipating very much out of this team, of which we will lose only two players.

THE BASKETBALL SEASON

WITH Scott Boyd, that dashing basketball player as Captain, our team underwent what might be called a successful year. The Henderson boys won exactly half of their games and their score topped their opponents by twenty-five or thirty points. William Green, one of our best players, netted more points than any other one player in the Vance County Championship series, and tied with Dement of Aycock for the honor of most valuable player.

The team went up to the final game in the Vance County Championship Series, against Aycock High School. After an exciting game in which our team worked as hard as possible, the score was tied, 13-13. In the added period, Aycock scored 2 points, much to the dismay and disappointment of our coach, student body and players.

THE BASKETBALL SEASON

THE Girls' Basketball season which began on the Tuesday after Christmas and ended Tuesday, March the fourteenth was a singularly successful one. After losing two games at the beginning of the year to Zeb Vance and Middleburg, they entered a season of most consistent victories, dropping only one conference game. The entire first team is due credit for their good work. After a particularly brilliant season on both their parts, Lola Maynard and Jewel Strange came out with honors as high scorers. Marian Worley, Jewel Strange and Allene Lowry will be lost by graduation but there are several promising substitutes who may be able to keep the team up to standard. Among these substitutes are several freshmen. This fact undoubtedly means improvement in the team for the next few years.

BASEBALL PROSPECTS FOR 1930

LAST year, the H.H.S. nine had the strongest team in this section. Our arch enemy and greatest rival, the dear old Oxford team found this out in the two severe drubbings that our Bulldogs gave them. The baseball season was unreservedly successful. The sad part was, however, that we lost, with the exception of one or two players, the whole squad.

Therefore, quite obviously, the prospects for a paramount team are very weak. At the beginning of the year the football squad was in a similar fix, but by hard work on the part of Coach Payne and by unparalleled co-operation on the part of the players, we had, to say the least, a very creditable football team. From the above illustration, we see that one cannot correctly prophesy what kind of a baseball nine will result from the exhaustive training to be undergone. But time will tell—one never knows. As Mr. Plowshare says, with much truth and logic, "You can't tell". Nevertheless, we are anticipating a very successful year for the Bulldogs.

GROWLS

This year Mr. Cobb, our up-to-the-minute new Principal, advanced a plan whereby our High School could be represented to the citizens of Henderson, and, at the same time, pupils journalistically inclined could gain useful experience. The BARKS FROM THE BULLDOGS appearing weekly in the Henderson Daily Dispatch is the culmination of this plan.

These "Barks" are edited by the students themselves with Miss Taylor and Mr. Cobb as faculty advisers. The editor and reporters are elected by popular vote.

The aim of our "paper", if we may so designate the space we occupy in the Dispatch, is twofold. First, we want to provide amusement and interest in school life for the students as a whole, and, as we have said, experience in journalism for those who are so inclined. Second, we want to bring our everyday life, our achievements, and the problems which beset us before the people of Henderson. Most particularly we wish to make them see just how badly Henderson needs a new High School Building.

YAPS AND SNAPS

We should advise Dorothy not to eat so much pickle if she expects "to keep that School Girl Complexion."

Bill Renn is trying lately to be very "sophisticated" with his unlighted pipe and his droopy hat.

Teachers can think up many kinds of contests, but they can't be blamed for the one being carried on now—a cough contest. Every period there is a race to see who can cough the longest and loudest—we wouldn't venture to say it is intentional.

This week has been trying on our wardrobe because it has been too hot for winter clothes and our spring outfit is not completed.

JOKES

Robert Green—Man is but a worm. He comes along, wriggles a little in the dust then some chicken gets him.

Rebecca C.—What have you there?

Peyton R.—O just some insect powder.

Rebecca C.—Good heavens, you aren't going to commit suicide, are you?

Father, who served in the big scrap—And that, my son, is the story of my experience in the world war.

Son—But, papa, what was the rest of the army used for?

Richard E.—I'm going to sue our English teacher for libel.

Emily P.—Why?

Richard E.—She wrote on my theme, You have bad relatives and antecedents.

Maria P.—W. C. says my mouth is the prettiest he has ever seen.

Howard A.—Indeed! Well, I'll put mine up against yours any time.

"Doctor," said the nervous man, "I often feel like killing myself. What shall I do?"

"Leave it to me," was the comforting reply.

Fools may come,

Fools may go,

But I go on forever.

DICK GOOCH.

Bug W.—Was your grandfather in comfortable circumstances when he died?

Lucille R.—No, I guess not, he was under a freight train.

Professor (after trying first class): Some time ago my doctor told me to take my morning exercises with dumbbells. Will the class please join me tomorrow before breakfast?

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

1. Ruth Buchan or Marion Worley at school at 20 minutes to 9?

2. Martha Faulkner with Madeline's height?

3. Miss Taylor going home without an arm full of note books?

4. Maria Parham walking to school?

5. Sonny Smith with hair like Martha Faulkner?

Mrs. Hughes has given her services to the school for three years, training the orchestra.

MRS. J. FRANKLIN MILLS
President Henderson High School,
P. T. A.

MRS. J. C. WHALEY
Treasurer of Parent-Teachers' Association.

MRS. J. H. BUNN
Chairman High School Orchestra Committee.

The P. T. A.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the Henderson high school has enjoyed three most successful years under the able leadership of Mrs. J. F. Mills. Mrs. Mills, in her efforts for, and interest in the school, has been untiring. She has organized an Orchestra and two Glee Clubs, assisted the PEP-PAC Staff and raised funds for Athletic Equipment. By regular enthusiastic monthly meetings of the Association she has kept up interest in the school among parents and teachers.

We give due credit and praise to this wide-awake organization.

MR. W. B. HARRISON
A busy man, who has given his time for two years to the training of our Glee Clubs.
